Notices

Subject Area	Notice	From	Audience
Word of the Week	English Department: KS3/4: Cumbersome: Something that is slow or complicated and therefore inefficient. Example: Businesses with their cumbersome structures are so inefficient. History Department: Year 7: Barons: A member of the lowest order of the British nobility. Baron is not used as a form of address, barons usually being referred to as 'Lord.' Year 8: Culture: is the social behaviour and norms found in human societies. Year 9: Terror: intense, sharp, overmastering fear or any period of frightful violence or bloodshed likened to the Reign of Terror in France. Maths Department: KS3: Consecutive: Following each other continuously. In Maths consecutive numbers are numbers that follow each other, i.e. 3,4,5 are consecutive numbers. KS4: Product: The result of multiplying numbers together.	Miss Evans	All Students
Literacy Focus of the Week	Exclamation Mark: An exclamatory sentence, or exclamation, is a more forceful version of a declarative sentence. In other words, an exclamatory sentence makes a statement (just like a declarative sentence), but it also conveys excitement or emotion. An exclamatory sentence ends with an exclamation mark (!) Example: What a lovely view you have here!	Miss Evans	All Students
Quote of the Week	'Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.' Martin Luther King.	Miss Mallon	All Students
DT	The DT department would be grateful if year 7, 8 and 9 students would donate their empty Pringles tubes. Please drop off Pringle containers to Mrs Smith in F104.	Mrs Smith	Year 7,8 & 9
