Privacy notice for Governors, Trustees and Volunteers

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the school in a voluntary capacity, including Governors and Trustees.

We, Weatherhead High School are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Officer is Mrs N Rogers, Deputy Headteacher (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those volunteering at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Personal details including date of birth and former names (where applicable)
- National Insurance Number
- Contact details including address, telephone numbers and email address
- Occupation and employment details
- Information about business and pecuniary interests

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable):

- Self-declaration information regarding suitability to be a Governor including criminal records, financial history (such as bankruptcy orders), disqualification orders or fines (Trustees)
- Nationality and Country of Residence (Trustees)
- Disability and access requirements

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to support school to:

- Establish and maintain effective governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing Governors' and Trustees' details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Undertake equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- We have legitimate interests in processing the data

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our Data Protection Policy and Records Management Policy.

We maintain a file to store personal information about all Governors, Trustees and Volunteers. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the school or trust.

When your relationship with the school or trust has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with our Data Protection Policy and Records Management Policy.

A copy of these policies may be found on the school's website www.weatherheadhigh.co.uk, About us, Policies & Procedures.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Local and Central Government departments or agencies – to meet our legal obligations to share information about governors/trustees
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor/trustee support and professional guidance, safeguarding training e.g. Hays Online Training
- Professional advisers and consultants e.g. The Key, The School Bus and National Governance Association.
- Police forces, courts

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

Use of your personal information for marketing purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, the school or trust may send you marketing information by e-mail or text promoting school or trust, events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to you. Aside from any information which you receive in connection with your capacity as Governor or Trustee you may choose to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting our Data Protection Officer.

Your rights

How to access the personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school or trust holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have a right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
