TOMORROW'S ENGINEERS WEEK 2019

DISCOVER CREATIVE CAREERS WEEK 2019

From Nov-Dec 2019, the story continues...

In recognition of Tomorrow's Engineers Week, Civil Engineer Joanna Bateman talked to students interested in careers in Engineering. She talked about her role at WSP and the industry as a whole. Students were given a structure to build to develop problem solving skills.

Jackson Lees Solicitors delivered a talk to a cohort of Year 12 students about working in the legal sector. Students gained an insight into the many areas of law including real case studies, and routes into the industry.

In recognition of Discover Creative Careers Week, a cohort of Year 12 students attended Tate Liverpool as part of their Experience of Work Programme, where they heard from industry professionals about working in the creative sector.

Edge Hill University

A cohort of Year 9 students visited Edge Hill University for the 'Aspire to Higher Education' day. Students were able to consider their future choices with regards to university and learn more about courses offered at degree level.

Year 7 students took part in the 'Introduction to the World of Work' event, exposing them to the concept of employment through a variety of activities, including the 'Career Aspiration Station' and 'Dressing for interview'. Students spoke to universities and local employer Unilever about higher education and employment opportunities in the region.

STREET LAW™

TEACHING ABOUT LAW. ADVANCING JUSTICE FOR ALL.

The University of Law delivered their 'Street Law' programme to Year 11 Sociology students, linking curriculum to careers. Students gained an understanding of what studying Law at university involves, and were able to discuss real life cases.
